PACIFIC GARDEN MISSION DEBUTS TV SERIES ON TOTAL LIVING NETWORK

America's Largest Continuously Operating Rescue Mission Television Premiere Highlights Teaching, Praise and Testimonies

CHICAGO, IL. On September 6, 2014, nine days before Pacific Garden Mission's 137th anniversary, the Total Living Network [TLN] began airing a one-hour weekly television broadcast featuring testimonies and teaching from PGM's Saturday evening service.

The program, Pacific Garden Mission, airs every Saturday at 7:30PM Central Time in the Chicagoland and Northern Illinois area down through the Springfield, IL area. The show consists of preaching from PGM's weekly Saturday evening Praise & Testimony service, as well as uplifting testimonies from those whose lives have been transformed through Jesus Christ. The program will re-air on Tuesdays at 1:00AM Central Time. Consult your cable guide.

The program can be viewed in several ways:

1. On Comcast 138 at 7:30PM in Northern Illinois – refer to local cable guide
2. At the newly updated Pacific Garden Mission website - www.pgm.org
3. At PGM's official YouTube site –
<http://www.youtube.com/channel/UC4CUeXOEmQV8V9qL3XqQHYYQ>
4. Online viewing at <http://tln.com/watch-online> at the time of broadcast on Saturdays at 7:30PM

TLN is a Christian organization providing faith-based programming through various forms of media. Its programming is seen exclusively through XFINITY from Comcast cable channel 138 in the Chicago and Midwest region and is syndicated in various markets and can be seen via their live stream at www.tln.com.

"It's an exciting opportunity to partner with another long-standing ministry from the Chicagoland market," remarked TLN General Manager Greg Bogdan. "Pacific Garden Mission is an incredible organization reaching so many people each and every day with the love of Christ. We are excited to have them increase their reach and impact through Total Living Network."

Executive Director, Phil Kwiatkowski, added, "This is an exciting opportunity for the viewing public to see how God is transforming lives at Pacific Garden Mission."

As it has since 1877, the Mission relies on private donations for its day-to-day operations. For more information or to make a donation, contact Pacific Garden Mission at 312/492-9410 or visit www.pgm.org.
