Special Breakfasts Show Jewish Roots of Christianity

- First Presbyterian Church features Holy Week Breakfasts on March 25 & 26

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 27, 2013 (The Religion Wire™) — Justin Kron, a representative of Chosen People Ministries, will be speaking at First Presbyterian Church, 325 E. Downer Place, Aurora, on March 25 and 26 for Holy Week Breakfasts at 6:30 and 9 a.m. Kron will be presenting the program “Passing the Passion: The Heart of Paul.”

Chosen People Ministries is an over one hundred-year-old mission that was founded in 1894 by Leopold Cohn, a Hungarian rabbi who came to believe that Jesus was the Messiah of Israel. From humble beginnings in Brooklyn, New York, Chosen People Ministries has grown into a worldwide ministry with outreach centers in Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, France, Germany, Israel, Mexico, Ukraine and the United States.

Throughout its long history, Chosen People Ministries has been unwavering in its commitment to bring the Gospel message of salvation in Jesus “to the Jew first and to the Gentile” throughout the world. In stressing the Jewish roots of Christian faith, Chosen People Ministries hopes to make the message of the Messiah more accessible to Jewish people and also to help Christian believers achieve a greater appreciation of the Jewish basis of their own faith traditions.

These breakfast meetings are open to the public and First Presbyterian Church would like to invite the Christian and Jewish community to attend.
