

“The Lord watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow.”

Psalm 146:9

world relief

Monday - Pray for International Aid

- Sufficient funds to meet the growing humanitarian needs of Syrian refugees
- Cooperation between organizations and countries providing aid to refugees
- A growing on-the-ground presence of organizations and programs to meet holistic needs

Tuesday - Pray for Refugee Health

- The capacity within camps to meet the physical and mental health needs of arriving refugees, including those experiencing trauma and psychological distress
- Improved living conditions and sanitation to reduce vulnerability to infection and disease

Wednesday - Pray for Refugee Protection

- Identification, protection and treatment for vulnerable refugees entering host countries
- Services and programs to address refugee poverty and humiliation, which are root causes of violence and despair.
- Services and programs to prevent and treat victims of Sexual Gender-Based Violence (SGBV)

Thursday - Pray for Refugee Poverty & Food Security

- Programs and opportunities that will prevent refugees from engaging in negative coping mechanisms as a means of income or to provide food for their families
- Food security for refugees

Friday - Pray for Refugee Shelter

- Sufficient, dignified housing for refugees living in informal, makeshift shelters
- Improvement of current settlements as winter approaches
- Capacity in resettlement camps to meet the projected influx of refugees in the coming year

Saturday - Pray for Refugee Women

- A tailored response to protect women and girls from various forms of SGBV
- Identification and treatment for women and girls who are victims of this kind of violence
- Growing availability and accessibility of services to meet the unique needs of women and girls

Sunday - Pray for Refugee Children

- The well-being and protection of all vulnerable children affected by the conflict in Syria.
- The well-being and protection of displaced children, inside and outside of Syria.
- Schools in Syria and host countries that must increase capacity to educate thousands of new refugee children
- Protection of unaccompanied refugee children and reconciliation with families

“Dear Children, let us not love with words or speech but with ACTIONS AND TRUTH” 1 John 3:18