Wayside Cross Ministries' Open House for Its New Facility July 24th and 25th

Aurora, Ill., July 16, 2015 (The Religion Wire™) — In the planning stages for over four years, under construction for 22 months and now it is ready, Aurora-based Wayside Cross Ministries (WCM) has issued a public invitation to their open house on Friday July 24, 12 noon to 4 p.m. and Saturday July 25, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for its new 47,000 sq. ft., four-story facility at 215 E. New York St., Aurora.

James Lukose, executive director of WCM, notes “On behalf of the entire WCM staff, volunteers and Board of Directors, I am deeply and humbly grateful to everyone who helped make this new ministry home possible. I hope you will choose to experience this blessing of God personally when you join us for our open house on July 24th and 25th. Please come celebrate with us during this important and joyous time in our history – and our future.”

The new building contains the general offices, the men’s ministry, classrooms, counseling offices, kitchen facilities, and dining hall. The living quarters are designed to serve Master’s Touch program men enrolled in seven to 18 month programs.

Please RSVP: (630) 723-3419 or email dbutler@waysidecross.org.
